

Dalip Singh Saund: First Asian-American in Congress (February 2010)

Recommended classes: Government, Civics, U.S. History

Across

1. Virtue characterized by concern only for others rather than oneself
6. Political party for which Saund was a delegate
9. Explainer or advocate

Down

2. One U.S. President who inspired Saund
3. Saund's religion
4. Goals, Occupations
5. Lived as an example of

10. This type of prejudice inspired Saund to work in the United States
11. Saund thought the _____ would free India
14. Pioneering; impressive for being first or new
15. Wise, careful
16. Although he lived and worked in the United States, Saund lacked full _____
17. Saund's other pursuit while he was working as a farmer
18. Other benefit of Saund's religion; being saved
23. False information, often passed through the media for political purposes
24. Saund's occupation in the 1920s
25. Mohandas K. Ghandi supported struggle without _____
26. Short period of time
7. A life story written by the subject
8. Happiness during one's mortal life; Saund hoped to attain it (2 words)
12. Decade during which Saund served as a judge
13. Very damaging, often through covert methods
15. Political movement of the 20th century
16. State where Saund lived in the United States
19. Saund's ethnic background: _____ - American
20. Peace, agreement
21. Virtue characterized by helping the needy
22. Created, made one's own path