

Chinese Capitalism Surprises All (October 2009)

Recommended classes: Government,
Economics

Across

- As in the animal kingdom, this type of capitalism kills and consumes competition
- The Party's power is considered ____, or without a fixed logic or meaningful system

Down

- Because ____ control the economy rather than markets, it is arguable whether capitalism is in effect
- Markets distribute, assign, or ____ resources in the economy

6. Inability to be seen through; not transparent
 8. Acknowledged, declared, announced
 9. Communist Party members are no longer mostly these
 10. Working as a team, allied; in _____
 14. Secret strategies
 15. Destroy or demolish
 16. Face, front; sometimes false or deceptive
 18. Chinese Communist leader
 19. Rules, morals, guidelines for acceptable behavior
 22. SOE's get generous _____ that give them advantages over private companies
 23. Businesspeople join the Party so that they can get _____
 24. Networks of relationships in China
 25. Ideas or facts that seem to go against or be opposite each other
 26. Conspire
 27. Broken, damaged, corrupted
3. Demonstrable strength
 5. Compensation; the opportunity to right a wrong
 7. Mixed up, disorganized, complicated
 9. One undesirable side effect of capitalism
 10. Hidden, Concealed
 11. Self-governance, independence
 12. Without boundaries or restrictions
 13. In a capitalist society, these organize the economy
 17. Energetic
 20. Businesses that are no longer owned by the state have become _____
 21. Exclusive control
 22. Lasting influence
 23. Liable to, having a tendency toward