

Carving a Life (November 2009)

Recommended classes: Art, World History

Across

2. Adiante refers to his life as an _____, an exciting experience typically characterized by risk
3. City Adiante lives in now
7. Expensive or privileged

Down

1. Adiante's father was _____, or rendered powerless to resist, his son's desire to go to United States
3. City where Franszool entered the United States

8. Continent on which Suriname is located (2 words)
9. Suriname's government is now a _____
11. Paradise
13. Far away from other things, isolated
15. Adiante sells his carved _____ art in the United States
16. School Adiante attended to earn a masters' degree (2 words)
17. Full of vegetation, luxurious
19. Type of food
22. Friendly, polite, warm
23. Researchers who studied the Maroons' lifestyle, environment, and behavior
24. He says that his home in America is a _____
25. Resident of Suriname
4. Adiante says that something irreplaceable was _____ when he came to the United States
5. The Dutch _____ and controlled West Africa, from which the Maroons escaped
6. Some of his relatives escaped to French _____ after a military takeover
10. Similar to a remembered place
11. Making money, being successful
12. His _____ may have been a reason he did not get a job
14. He sells his art at this Washington, D.C. landmark
18. Angry, antagonistic, unfriendly
20. Way of acquiring food
21. Former colony of the Netherlands